

EXTRA Independent Challenge 1

You have decided to start your own furniture-making company, and you need to design a business card. Your business is called Beautiful Wood Designs.

1. Create a new publication using the Business Cards section in the Publication Types list.
2. In addition to the company name (Beautiful Wood Designs), use your own address in the card.
3. Use a style you feel is appropriate and add a picture to the design.
4. Include any elements you feel add value to the publication. Substitute Your Name in the business card.
5. Set up the business card as one card in the center of the page.
6. Save the publication as Beautiful Wood Designs.
7. Add a text box and fill it with information about the types of products the business produces.
8. Print and hand in your work.
9. Exit Publisher.

EXTRA Independent Challenge 2

You've decided to tackle the clutter in your home: it's time for a garage sale. Use the Publication Types list to create a sign that you'll post throughout your neighborhood.

1. Create a new publication using the Signs category of the Publications for Print category in the New Publication task pane.
2. Use your own address in the sign.
3. Use the date of your choice.
4. Save the publication as Garage Sale Sign.
5. Add a text box and fill it with information on types of treasures that can be found at the sale. Change the position of the text box and the font size, if necessary.
6. Print and hand in your work.
7. Exit Publisher.
